WATERCOLOUR BRUSHWORKS and Contemporary CALLIGRAPHY

For the upcoming Autumn Festival Season 2008

Studio 壽 thọ is organizing a special event for everyone interested in this oriental artwork - a present for friends or family or lovers of contemporary Vietnamese calligraphy.

After the successful exhibition at the Hue Festival 2008 over 30 calligraphies – watercolour brushworks - by leading artist Le Quoc Viet and his famed Zen'ei Gang of Five will now be on display in the capital at our gallery once again! In addition, we present the exquisite watercolours by Dang Thu Huong.

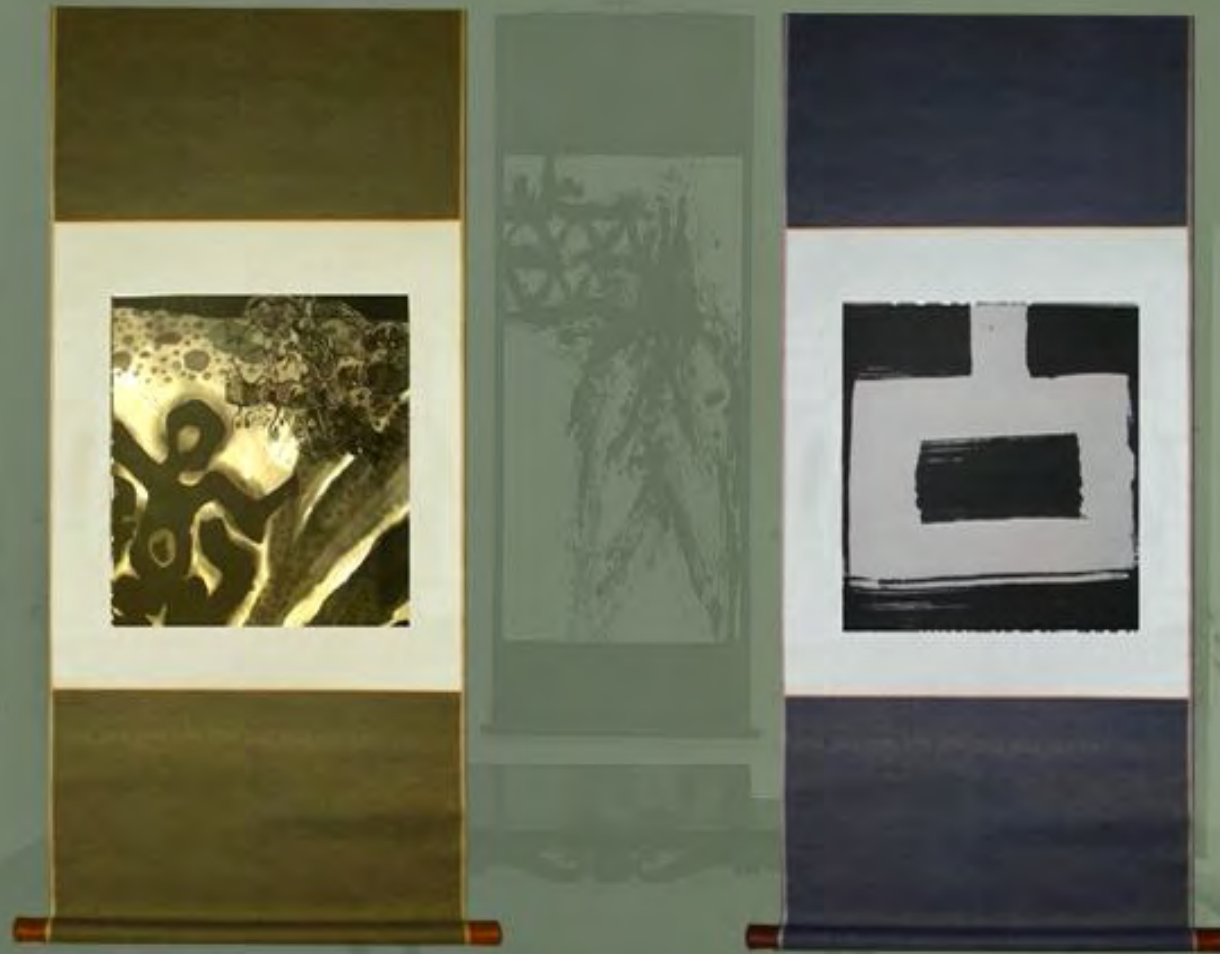

All watercolour paintings/calligraphies are superbly mounted on scrolls with fine silk in the typical Asian traditional style. You can hang them on the wall or keep them safely as a rolled up scroll. This old mounting technique is applied in all East Asian countries, such as Japan, Korea, China – and Vietnam. Roller ends are made of high quality rose wood.

Prices are fixed and each is sold at 300 USD.

Please also ask for larger scrolls and calligraphic works from our stock
