Due to financial obligations incurred by FVH while planning events, please register for events in advance as space is limited. If you must cancel fewer than 24 hours before the event, or if you do not show up, you are kindly requested to pay the event fee.

Program Details

Discover Hanoi City Walk:
The Evolution of Colonial Style Architecture
Sunday, 03 May, 10:00 AM - 12:00 PM
(English)

Our walk starts in Lý Thái Tổ Park next to the old post office - the heart of the French colony during the first decades of the 20th Century. From there we will walk towards the Opera House and down towards the School of Pharmacy, originally the University of Hanoi, designed by French architect Ernest Hebrard. Following the wide, tree-lined boulevards of Lý Thường Kiệt and Trần Hưng Đạo we will trace the evolution of French colonial style architecture from the turn of the century to the end of the French era in the 1940's.

Place: Meet in Lý Thái Tổ Park on the corner of Lê Thạch and Đinh Tiên Hoàng
Cost: 70,000 VND
Limit: 20 people
Registration: Katie Jacobs, katielaurenjacobs@gmail.com

Please leave your mobile number so you can be contact in case of any last minute changes.

Notes: This is not a loop walk. We will finish at Thiên Quang Lake on Nguyễn Du Street. Wear comfortable shoes and clothes as it may be hot or rainy, and bring plenty of water to drink.

Music & Performance:
Vietnam's Traditional Performances
Friday, 08 May, 7:45 PM – 10:00 PM

Join us for a journey of the musical history and traditions of Hanoi. The show replicates the footsteps of the city's music through history, using traditional voices, rhythms, and beats combined with contemporary installation arts. The performances will be made by several well-known People's Artists, singers, and musicians. The following traditional music and singing styles will be included in the performance: The Hát Quan Họ – an alternative form of singing originating in Bắc Ninh in northern Vietnam in the 18th century. The Chèo - a form of folk theater in North Vietnam, featuring lyrical playfulness with conventional high style and simple lyrics with rhythmic richness. The Châu Văn – a form of ritual music, rich in melody and rhythmic structure, for the worship of the Mother Goddesses, a shamanistic religion of Vietnam. The Cải Lương - originating in southern Vietnam, this art form has thrived since the 1940s. The Ca Trù - recognized as an Intangible Cultural Heritage of Humanity by UNESCO, Ca trù was developed in the Royal Court at the time of Lý dynasty (from the 11th to 13th century). Ca trù is a ritual chant of refined poetry for scholars and mandarins. The Hát Tuồng – a form of ancient theater which originated in China and came to Vietnam in the 13th century. The theatrical techniques include martial arts and circus, accompanied by singing and music. The Hát Xẩm – a musical style originally played by blind beggars in marketplaces and buses, whose accompanying songs are about human morality and ironic satires about life.

Get Involved, Volunteer!

Guidebook Research and Revision

The Friends of Vietnam Heritage Publications group is asking for 4 volunteers to help with research and revision of one of FVH's guidebooks. Each volunteer will be assigned a walk or area for review. Research time can be flexible depending on your schedule and each area should take 2 to 4 hours. Two organizational meetings will be held later to review and present changes to publisher.

For more information: Please email John Reilly, left-handed2hanoi@yahoo.com

Walking Guide

Have you ever been on one of FVH's fabulous walks and thought to yourself: "Wow! I want to be a guide just like that!?" Well, now you too have the chance – we have a very limited number of walks that need guiding, and you could be the lucky person to guide one of these walks!

Main duties once every 3-6 months:

- Schedule the walk by sending in a pre-written template to the FVH newsletter publisher
- Register and keep track of attendees
- Send out a reminder e-mail before the walk
- Guide the walk, check-in attendees, and collect the event fee
- Submit a follow-up report

Expected output: One activity every 3-6 months (except during summer months)

Estimated time: 3 hrs per month

Publications

Friends of Vietnam Heritage produce a number of publications. All publications are 60,000 VND. If you would like to purchase any of these books just contact FVH at fvheritage@gmail.com. Books are also sold at all FVH events or at Bookworm.

1. Bạch Mã Temple Guidebook (White Horse Temple)

Learn about King Lý Thái Tổ's dream and why the temple honors the White Horse Deity. This guidebook offers detailed information on the history of Bạch Mã Temple on Hàng Buồm Street, including temple layout, translation of panels written in Chinese characters, as well as information about the symbolism used in the temple. The guided walk contained at the end of this guidebook provides an opportunity to explore and experience some of the same streets where the craft guilds and merchants set-up within the third enclosure of the citadel.

Published 2001

2. Quán Thánh Temple Guidebook

This publication details the legends of Huyền Thiên Trấn Vũ, also known as the 'genie who guards the Dark Heaven.' This guidebook contains detailed information on the history of Quán Thánh Temple, as well as translations of the many parallel sentences and poems on the walls and columns of this magnificent Taoist Temple. A walking tour of the bronze-casting village of Ngũ Xã, with its Chùa and Đình and the enjoyable atmosphere around Trúc Bạch Lake is included.

Published 2002, reprinted 2008

3. Trấn Quốc Pagoda Guidebook

The Trấn Quốc Pagoda on Thanh Niên Road was founded some 1400 years ago, and it is one of the most ancient Buddhist pagodas in Hà Nội. Nestled between West Lake and Trúc Bạch Lake, the pagoda is considered a magnificent symbol of Buddhism in Việt Nam, and is one of the most visited sites in the capital. This guidebook covers the history of Buddhism, the temple layout, and describes in detail the different areas of the pagoda. A fascinating publication, which includes especially commissioned drawings and photographs.

Published 2003, reprinted 2006

4. Phủ Tây Hồ Guidebook (West Lake Palace)

Have you ever wondered who these doll-like statues in glass cabinets, in blue, white, red or green attire may be? Phủ Tây Hồ at the far end of the Tây Hồ peninsula is the most impressive pagoda dedicated to the cult of the Mother goddesses in Hà Nội, an indigenous cult that seems to permeate the lives of all Vietnamese women in varying degrees. The guidebook describes in detail the complex itself, then discusses the religion of the Mother goddesses, including its philosophy, pantheon and rituals.

Published 2004

5. Lãn Ông Street Guidebook (Traditional Medicine Street)

Traditional medicine is very much alive on this particular street of the Old Quarter. This guidebook not only describes the area in its historical context and current set-up, but also offers information on a variety of Vietnamese herbal teas for the health conscious as well as a comprehensive pictorial of Lãn Ông Street.

Published 2005, reprinted 2005

6. Bát Tràng Traditional Pottery Village: A Self-Guided Walk

This guidebook focuses on the old section of the pottery commune of Bát Tràng, a village with a long history hitherto unknown to many outsiders. The guidebook is based on a self-guided walk. There are three different circuits lasting from 45 minutes to two hours, all shown on a map.

Published 2006, reprinted 2009

7. Hoàn Kiếm Lake, its Legends and Temples: A Self-Guided Walk

The area around Hồ Hoàn Kiếm represents the physical heart and spiritual soul of Hà Nội. Continuing the tradition of FVH to promote the understanding of Việt Nam's history and culture, this guidebook focuses on the history and legends, the temples and pagodas surrounding the lake. Also included is information on the large Báo Ân Pagoda complex, which was razed between 1886-1889 and left only the Hòa Phong tower still standing today.

Published 2007

8. Vignettes of French Culture in Hà Nội

This guidebook provides an insight and appreciation of the influence on Hà Nội of the French colonial period from 1873 until 1954. The three guided walks contained in this guidebook provide an opportunity for the reader to explore and experience aspects of what the people of Hà Nội have absorbed and made their own as a result of eighty years of French presence in their city.

Published 2008

9. Hồ Tây – Walks Around West Lake

Hồ Tây continues to inspired writers, artists and photographers with its beauty, history, culture and religious aspects, but it also provides for its local residents a source of fish, water and a rich soil to cultivate a variety of plants and vegetables. This guidebook covers the legends of the lake, as well as its history and future plans for this rapidly expanding part of Hà Nội. Included are five self-guided walks identifying those places of interest both old and new around the entire West Lake shore.

Published 2009

10. Văn Miếu Walking Tour (Temple of Literature)

This guidebook introduces visitors to the Văn Miếu, or the Temple of Literature, one of the foremost architectural treasures of Việt Nam and its capital city Hà Nội. The Văn Miếu - Quốc Tử Giám ranks third in Việt Nam's register of national historic sites. A leafy oasis in the centre of the bustling city, it is a magnet for the citizens of Hà Nội and for visitors to the city who wish to spend a quiet moment contemplating its rich past. This guidebook contains a history of the school and the temple, a description of each courtyard and its meaning as expressed through its architecture, translations of all the plaques, as well as quick guides to Confucianism and the Royal Examinations

Resource Center

Hanoi City Library Thư Viện Hà Nội 47 Bà Triệu, 4th floor Hà Nội, Việt Nam

The Friends of Vietnam Heritage's Resource Center is on the 4th floor of the Hanoi City Library (Thư Viện Hà Nội), located on the corner of Trần Hưng Đạo and Bà Triệu streets. The FVH collection includes books and journals that focus on Vietnamese art, history and culture.

In order to access the collection you need to get a Reader's Card. Go to the office (just inside the main entrance of the library), fill out a simple form, and attach one photograph. You'll also need to show your passport and pay an annual fee of 22,000 VND. After becoming a member, show your card whenever you go in.

The FVH collection is for reference only. You cannot remove the books from the library. Please note that the Reader's Card does not authorize the holder to borrow other books from the main library. If you want a Borrower's Card for checking out non-FVH books, you will need to fill out another form to receive one.

Library Opening Times: Every day Monday to Friday except Thursday morning of the first and third week of the month. Daily times: 8:00 AM – 12:00 PM and 1:30 – 5:00 PM. Closed on weekends and national holidays.

Moving?

Say goodbye to FVH by leaving us your gently-used books about Việt Nam. Your donation will be added to our reference collection, housed inside the FVH Resource Centre, Hanoi City Library. Contact John Reilly (lefthanded2hanoi@yahoo.com) to arrange donation. Your books will be enjoyed by many people for years to come—thank you!
